

Most snacks we tried on trips are too high in calories, sweet or salty.

First apple chips we tried abroad were not very tasty and we thought that apples in this form could be a perfect snack if they were cooked better.

We began experiments with different varieties, recipes and temperature regimes.

This is how we got this taste.

We wanted to make perfect apple chips

Chips that you'll want to savor

Tasty, crunchy, with a natural sweetness and healthy as apples

Newton's Apple Chips are produced in natural
